

THE MARSHALL REPUBLICAN.

IN THE COUNTY.

MALTA BEND.

Jas Baker met with a painful accident last Friday. While gathering corn, the team started and in trying to catch the lines, his foot slipped under the wheel, which ran upon his ankle and slipped off, badly bruising and spraining the member. He is resting easy now, but for several days he suffered greatly.

The team of J. H. Stuart, our gentle gardener, became frightened last Saturday and started to run. Vegetables were scattered promiscuously all over town. No serious damage was done.

A car load of telephone poles have been unloaded here and before long we can talk with folks in Marshall.

Dollie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bristow, died Monday. Interment in Malta Bend Cemetery, Tuesday.

Laura Brown has gone to Sevier, Ark., to resume her duties as instructor in the college at that place.

Mrs Emma Bright and Emma Bright have been quite sick, but at this writing are much improved.

Quite a number are passing through here, attending the Street Fair at Marshall.

Rev. D. L. Lander is in Appleton City attending the Presbyterian Fair week.

Editor Kapp went to K. C. Wednesday day to participate in the carnival.

Odie Moore of Grand View is visiting the Slusher family this week.

Pearl Vanstone is in Marshall this week attending the Fair.

Pred and Gizzie Theiss spent one day in New Franklin.

D. M. Frazer was over from Hillsville Wednesday.

Monday morning showed the frost of the season.

Another restaurant will soon open up for business.

Walter Jones was down from K. C. last week.

Bell Payne of Marshall is here this week.

Hickory knitting seems to be all the go.

Lewis Nye has moved to the bottom.

NELSON.

E. T. Ault has shown himself to be an enterprising citizen this week. He purchased property on Baker street, and after building an addition to the house and otherwise beautifying the place, he turned his attention to the street. Securing the help of Mr. G. F. McClain, road overseer, with the grader they put in a day on the street between Second and Third streets and now have that part of Baker street in fine shape. Such enterprise bespeaks an interest in the welfare of the city. It would be well for others to follow such an example.

A dance took place at the home of Jas Harvey Wednesday evening. Mrs. Anna Harvey and Mrs. Sophie Harvey being the contracting parties Rev. E. E. Morris officiated.

Ed Palmerster, who has been at work in Joplin, came home this week; he reports business booming at that place.

The Woodmen are talking of having supper in the near future for the benefit of the order.

The city has the water it was promised last spring. The city duds have indeed done well.

Jas Verts, our enterprising miller, spent Sunday in the country with a lady friend.

Mrs. Gladys Varsleman spent Sunday in Napton visiting friends.

Mrs. Henry Howard visited her parents at Napton Sunday.

Master Louis Black is the proud possessor of a new bike.

W. S. Hanley is visiting friends in Houston this week.

The fair was visited Tuesday night by Jack Frost.

Joe Starnes went to Fayette Tuesday.

NAME.

Among those who attended the Fair at Marshall Thursday were Mrs. John Wallen and daughter, Beulah and Zella, Mrs. A. P. Bishop, Mrs. Thomas Mattingley, Mrs. Katie Mattingley and Leon V. Allegre of this city.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Nancy Campbell has returned from the Maywood Sanitarium at St. Louis, and has improved very much.

M. L. Barnes is in Independence preparing to move his family therer; we are sorry to lose them from their minister.

Mrs. Edie Mattingley, who has spent the summer in Illinois, and eastern Mo., is expected home Friday.

Mrs. Martha Wallen and John Kirby attended the street Fair at Marshall Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Hanna is visiting the family of her brother, Odie Burns in Marshall.

Post master of Marshall attended the funeral of T. J. Hammer Friday.

T. H. Harvey of Marshall attended the funeral of T. J. Hammer.

John Jones, of Columbia, was in town last week.

Mrs. Geo. Nye of Laynesville, was in town Tuesday.

After little Harry is visiting in Marshall.

Farm Wanted.

To rent a small farm within six miles of Marshall. Must be suitable for general farming and butter dairying.

For further information apply at this office.

2225

Mr. W. H. Bradley is managing Miners Hotel this week. The major is one of the handsomest men in the state and we wish to present

SALT SPRINGS.

Mrs. Chas. McInahan, Miss Jennie Scarborough, G. O. Thornton's family, Misses Jennie Galloway and Nora Olsen, were among those who attended the fire works Monday night in Marshall.

Graver M. Bartley was in the neighborhood last Sunday saying goodbye to friends. He don't know when he will be here again. It will depend on circumstances.

Mrs. Allen Brown of Idaho, Kansas, who has been visiting her old home in Penna., is spending a week here visiting friends.

Great preparations are being made for the "Old Baptist" association at Godley on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

W. T. German is here this week sowing clover seed. The yield of seed this fall is not large and not very good quality.

Mrs. Ella Bauer has gone to Marshall to spend the winter. She will be housekeeper at the Hiess home.

Mrs. Chamberlain returned Monday from a month's visit to her son, Robert and family of Arendia, Tex.

C. B. Bacon was in this vicinity last Saturday. He bought one mile from Wilson Blair.

E. F. Colvers and family attended the Street Fair on Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. Lander is in Appleton City this week attending a meeting of Presbyterians.

Mrs. Edie Badger of Herndon is here visiting at Wm. McClelland's this week.

A party of young gentlemen were out swimming Saturday night.

T. B. Nichols and wife attended the Street Fair on Tuesday.

J. W. Blair attended services in Malta Bend Sunday evening.

Preaching and communion next Sunday.

E. Kennedy is sick this week.

Attention Farmers!

Having bought a car load of the celebrated

Matthew's Wove Wire Fence

whose prices went up, we are able to sell to you at better prices than you can get elsewhere.

Patent & Hammock
Stock - North Side Square.

J. E. Morris, of Waukesha, was a visitor at the Fair on Tuesday.

Everything in school supplies at Marshall Book Store.

Wm. Anderson, of Mt. Leonard, took in the Fair Tuesday.

COW WANTED—A good Jersey milk cow, gentle and one that gives plenty of milk. Address A. care of REED & CO., Marshall, Mo.

Rev. J. W. Borrell, the new Methodist minister will preach at the Southren Methodist church on Sunday.

For Pure Lake Salt and Smelting Coal go to Williams & Son, Marshall.

an Elegant Line of Fall and Winter
Suit
Goods,

in the Choicest and Latest Styles just received. Call and see my stock of Neat and Nobly Selections while you have all the patterns to choose from, now complete in every respect. Also, some handsome goods for

Light and Heavy Overcoats.

Here you are sure of a good fitting and stylishly cut garment. Every Stitch is taken in the house, a strictly tailoring establishment.

Joe
Mitchell,
The Tailor.

West Side Square